The Chaplet of the Divine Mercy

Holy Mass

Presider and Homilist: Monsignor Charles Pope

The Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments decreed (May 23, 2000) that: "Throughout the world, the Second Sunday of Easter will receive the name Divine Mercy Sunday, a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in Divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that humankind will experience in the years to come." The message of Divine Mercy was promoted by St. Faustina, who was canonized in Rome by Pope St. John Paul II on April 30th, 2000.

Welcome: Deacon Tyler Mentzer, MIC
Cantor: Judy Richer

All: You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O fount of life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in You. [Three times] (Diary, 84)

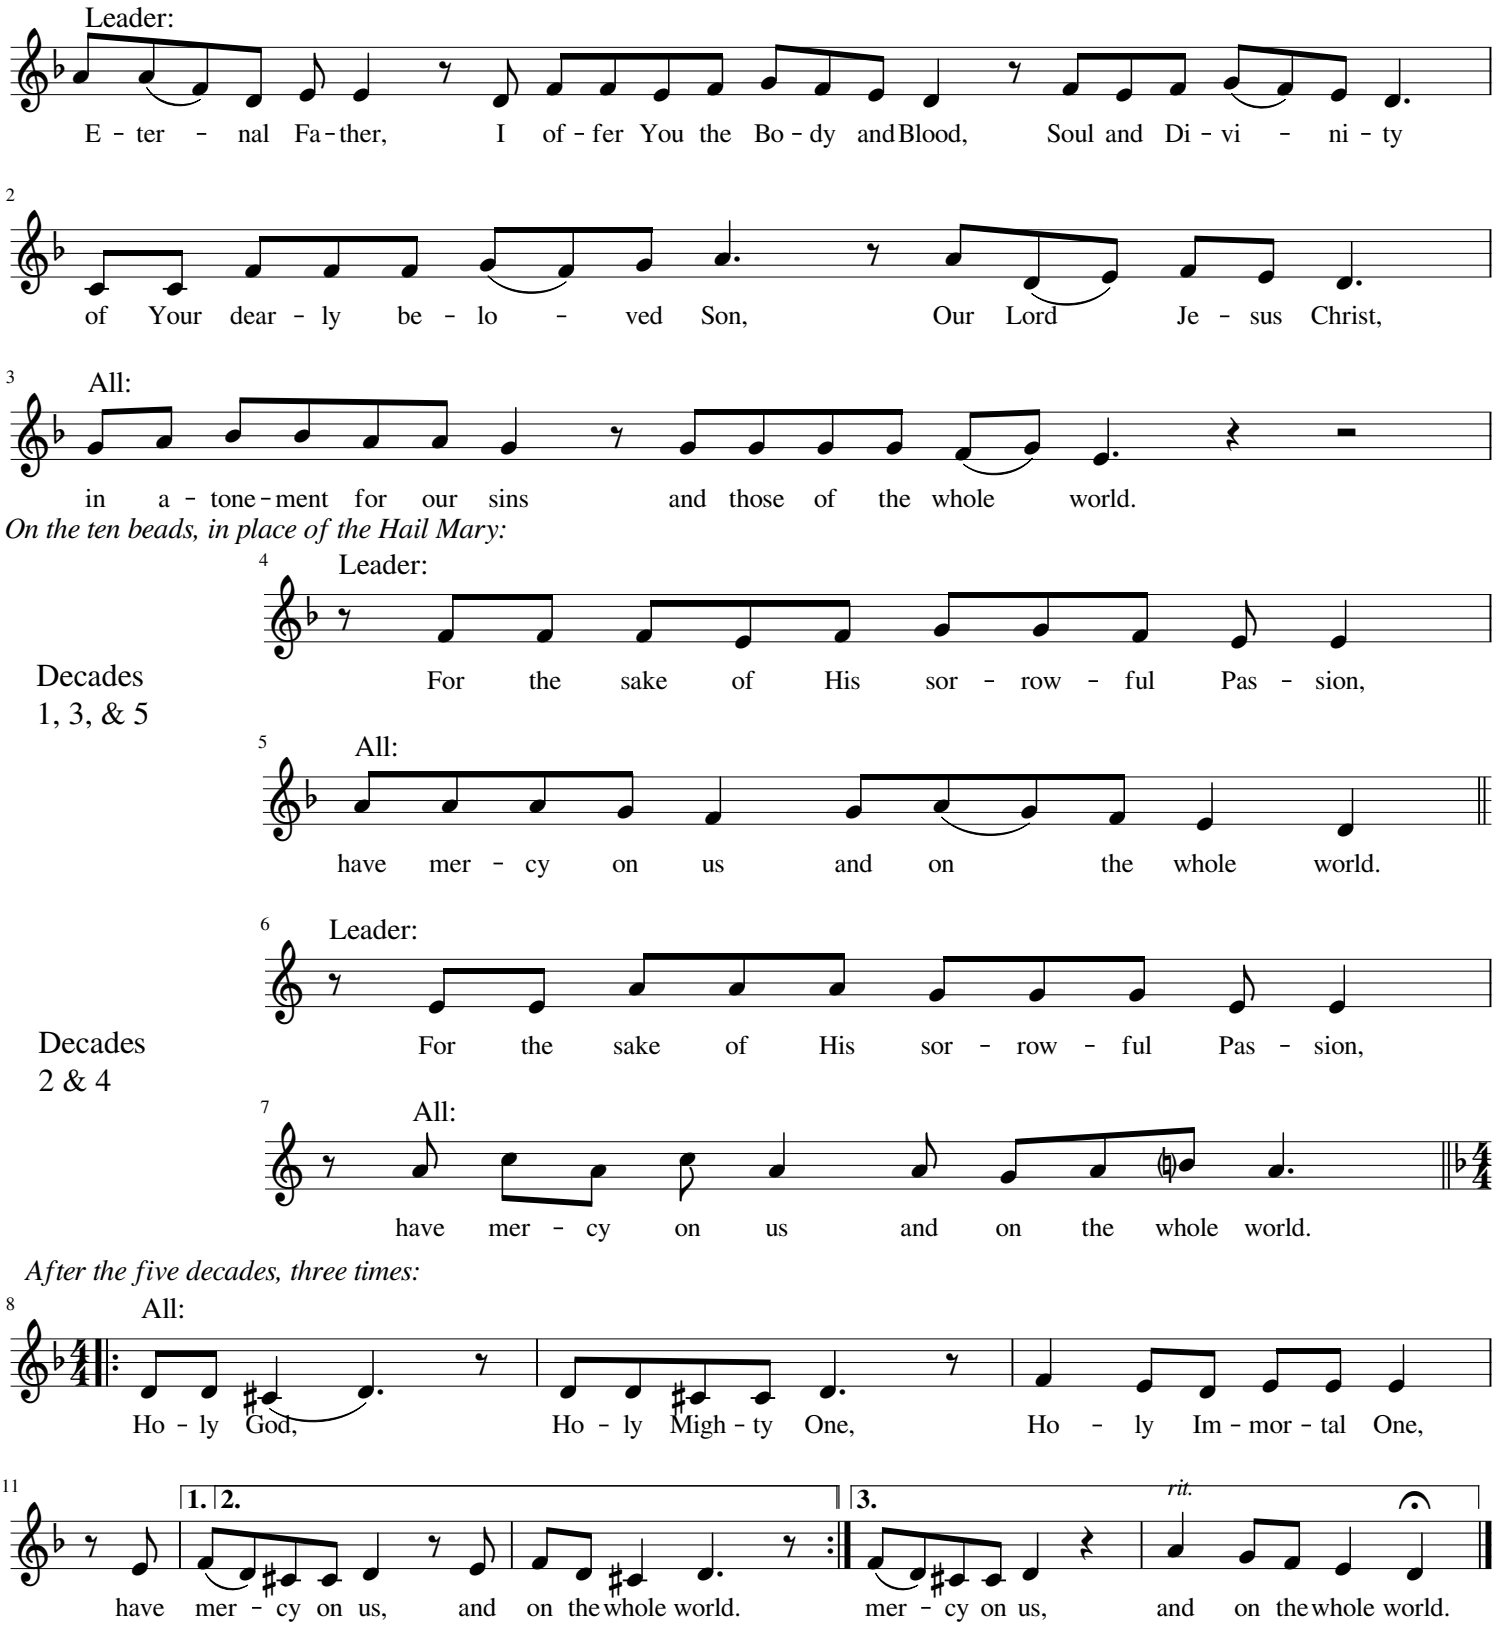
Our Father - Hail Mary – Apostles' Creed

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Cantor: Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ,

All: In atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.



On the ten beads, in place of the Hail Mary:

Decades 1, 3, & 5

Decades 2 & 4

After the five decades, three times:

Concluding Prayer:

All: Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.
